

Nonprofit Investigations

Experience

- Conducted an independent investigation on behalf of the Board of Director into a non-profit organization's management and culture stemming from allegations of racism and bullying by the organization's CEO.
- Conducted an internal investigation on behalf of a private preparatory school into allegations of sexual misconduct by a nonemployee. After interviewing witnesses and performing a thorough review of other evidence, WMH reported its findings to school administrators and proposed improvements to the handbook and relevant human resources, record keeping, and security policies.
- Conducted an internal investigation on behalf of a special committee of a private boarding school's board of trustees into historical allegations of sexual misconduct. Reported findings, counseled on necessary legal actions, and proposed improvements to policies and procedures.
- Represented parents and students of a private school challenging the board of trustees' use of charitable donations and the improper dismissal of the school's headmaster.
- Member of Archdiocese of New York's review board for allegations of improper relations between the clergy and minors.
- Advised the Special Rapporteur on extrajudicial, summary or arbitrary executions regarding U.S. law concerning various civil and criminal remedies, duties of the U.S. and other governments toward intended victims of crimes (including duty to warn), and related issues arising under international treaties and other international law, in connection with a report to the Human Rights Council of the U.N. concerning the death of the Saudi journalist, Jamal Khashoggi.
