ADMISSIONS

New York

U.S. District Court for the Southern and Eastern Districts of New York

Mary represents public and private companies and senior executives in complex civil, criminal, commercial, and regulatory matters.

She maintains an active pro bono practice and has provided direct legal services for asylum-seeking women and children and on voting rights matters. She is also a member of WMH's Diversity and Inclusion Committee.

During law school, Mary worked at the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission in Washington, DC as an Honors Legal Intern and at the Office of the United States Trustee in New York within the Department of Justice.

Prior to law school, Mary spent three years as a paralegal at the U.S. Attorney's Office for the Southern District of New York in the Securities and Commodities Fraud Task Force, where she handled all phases of litigation from investigations through appeals and prosecuted an array of securities fraud cases. While at SDNY, she prepared and actively took part in seven successful jury trials to their completion and many white collar investigations, and worked closely with federal agencies, including the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, Federal Bureau of Investigation, and other regulators.

Mary speaks fluent Spanish.
